TELLS OF DEATH
OF THE FAIRS

CAPTAIN SEYMOUR MADE A VISIT TO FRANCE AND GAINED ALL THE FACTS TO BE LEARNED.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 26.— Captain John Seymour formerly chief of detectives who resigned from the police department to accept the position of personal agent of the late Charles Fair and superintendent of the real property of the Fair estate, returned to the city last evening after a trip to England and France.

When Captain Seymour left San Francisco it was generally understood that he was going to New York there to investigate the bodies of the unfortunate young millionaire and his wife, who met such a shocking death in the automobile accident near Paris.

"No," said the captain, "no one knew that I had gone to France, nor did I intend any one to know. My business there was of a special nature." While the captain would explain no further what took him on his long trip across the Atlantic, it is understood that his mission was for the purpose of gaining every fact respecting the accident, and especially with reference to the stories concerning which of the victims showed the last sign of life.

However this may be, Captain Seymour's story throws a new light on the accident.

"There is no doubt whatever that the smash was caused by Mr. Fair's being attacked with a coughing fit," he said.
"As all his intimate acquaintances know, he was subject to these, and they would sometimes almost double him up. When this attack seized him he lost control of the machine and it must have swerved. He leaned forward on the brake so hard that it 'skidded' the hind wheel, ripping the tire off and plowing a furrow ten feet long. I visited the scene and the furrow was still visible though the road has been travelled much since. The brake checked the terrible speed of the machine so suddenly that Mr. and Mrs. Fair were thrown out. His head struck a tree, but was thrown into the road. With the brake released of his weight the machine shot forward again and the front axle cut a gash in the tree and there the automobile stopped. It was not badly smashed only the front and hind wheels being damaged."

Whatever evidence the ex-detective chief gained as to the duration of life of Mr. and Mrs. Fair he did not care to disclose. He stated, however, that he was astounded on returning here to learn of the condition in which the bodies arrived.

"The remains left France the day that I reached Liverpool," he said, "but on my arrival in Paris I was informed that every possible means had been taken for their proper preservation, and of course, I had no reason to doubt the statements. Certainly every instruction had been given to the funeral directors there, and they alone are responsible for the neglect."

Captain Seymour returned to New York on the record-breaking liner, Kronprinz Wilhelm of the North German Lloyd line.

MCCULLY LAND DEAL.

The examination of George Paris, treasurer of the Walkiki Land and Loan Association, as ordered by the court in the suit brought against him for an accounting by J. M. McChesney, was concluded yesterday afternoon. Before referee Sinclair, Paris explained many of the transactions of the company in connection with the McCully land deal, but said that he would have to have assistance if required to make a full statement of the accounts. He declared that a full report would show that the land and loan association was noting and was in debt to Ashley and Paris.

TYPICAL SOUTH AFRICAN STORE.

O. R. Larson, of Bay Ville, Sundays River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers with a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question.
Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by all druggists. Benson Smith & Co., general agents.
